

GDPR

When you upload your resume in the Nordic Interim database, you register a number of personal information that Nordic Interim subsequently have access to in connection with our activities. We therefore request you to confirm that you allow us to process your personal information.

When we communicate digitally, your name and address and other personal information will often be included, so we will shortly describe what we do.

1. Who?

All partners and employees at Nordic Interim A/S are allowed to access and process my data.

2. What kind of information?

My consent includes the following information only:

- My name
- My current address
- My phone number
- My mail address
- My uploaded documents (CV, other relevant documents)

3. For what purpose?

My consent includes the following:

- Storing the above information in the Nordic Interim candidate database for assignments as interim manager or permanent employment.
- Searching and selecting the data for relevant assignments / positions that match my competencies
- Sending me emails with information about new assignments / positions
- Phone calls regarding relevant assignments / positions that match my profile
- Sending newsletters 3-4 times a year with news from Nordic

4. In what ways?

My consent includes processing on the following media:

- Mails to my e-mail address
- Phone calls, text messages, voice messages, ect. to my mobile / phone

I can send an email to nordic@nordicinterim.dk at any time and require deletion of documents on my profile or deletion of my entire profile.

By my acceptance, I hereby consent to the above.