

PRESS RELEASE

PARIS, January 30th, 2024

Valtus accelerates its international expansion with new management team.

In a time when the Executive Interim Management market is experiencing remarkable growth in Europe, France alone had a 34% growth in the first half of 2023<sup>1</sup>, Valtus now accelerates its internationalization.

Already the European leader in its sector, Valtus seeks to assert itself as a global player in executive interim management. Today is announced for this purpose an internationalization and expansion of its management team, with people from Sweden, Belgium and France leading the company.

Philippe Soullier, founder of Valtus and until now Valtus Group CEO, will take on the role of Chairman. He will focus his agenda on the group's M&A operations and work towards ensuring the success of the new governance team.

Björn Henriksson, until now Managing Partner of the Nordic Region, since 2020 within Valtus, has been appointed new Group CEO. His extensive experience of managing and integrating international companies will play a key role for Valtus future growth and success.

Arnaud Michaux, Group CFO of Valtus since 2016, has been appointed Group COO. His broad and long international experience will be essential when managing the Valtus' finance & global operations.

Aymeric Bas, Partner at Valtus since 2016, has been appointed Managing Partner International and Chief Revenue Officer. He has extensive international experience and will lead Valtus' international growth and business development agenda including also expanding the Valtus Alliance partner network throughout the world.

Yves Mégret, Partner at Valtus since 2014, has been appointed Managing Partner France. With his experience and in-depth knowledge of the French market, he will play a key role in continuing growing and consolidating Valtus' leadership in France.

Cecilia Brinck, Partner in Sweden since 2020, has been appointed Managing Partner Sweden. Cecilia's long experience within Executive Interim Management in the Nordics will play an important role to further grow Sweden.

Valtus thus enters a new era of its development, confident in its ability to meet the opportunities of the global executive interim management market and the evolving needs of its clients worldwide.

“This new executive team marks a turning point in our history. It represents the internationalization of our company, our ability to integrate different cultures, and the successful expansion of our activities outside France.”, says Philippe Soullier, founder of Valtus and new Chairman of the company.

“Valtus has been a tremendous success doubling its size every 3 years. We feel very comfortable that the new leadership team will continue to grow, build and consolidate the Executive Interim market.”, says Marc Dupuy, Associate Director at GENE0 Capital Entrepreneur and member of the Valtus board.
